Result of examination:

This report supplements the Laboratory reports in this matter dated February 13, 1980, March 18, 1980 and April 18, 1980. Refer to these reports for a listing of previously submitted items and the results of prior examinations.

Enclosed are two sets of photographs (2 photographs per set) of the submitted specimen.

Specimen Q3 is an electronic device in a white plastic box approximately 3 1/8" x 2 3/8" in size. The circuitry of Q3 is identical to the schematic diagram previously submitted to the Laboratory.

Specimen Q3 is programmable. The frames appear to be 0 to 99 hours in one hour increments. The timing

We can save both ourselves a lot of trouble if we just look at where it's going because I can't ship a lot of these overseas"?
 - A. I don't know because it could have been in the initial discussion. We weren't discussing the method of transportation because you can ship that stuff by sea. It may have been only when aircraft was brought up that the decision was then made right then and there.
 - Q. What was the decision that was made?
 - A. That we could not ship that material by air under any circumstances.

AX

- Q. After that decision was made what went on at that meting [sic] between you and the Harpers that Mr. Wilson was in and out of?
- A. I left it at that, and that was it.

 They said they were going to make up their minds, and so forth, and so on; and then I had no more to do with it.
- Q. Was there any communication, to your knowledge, after you left for Saudi Arabia, after this meeting, between the Harpers, or Mr. Wilson, or Mr. Terpil, and your company in your absence?
- A. There may have been because they accepted an order, the order which I gave a copy to the FBI, and that material was shipped.

(Transcript, pp. 25-26.)

Q. Mr. Brower, I believe when we broke for a few minutes we were discussing the shipment that was in fact made, or the order that was in fact filled, for Inter-continental Technology.

Was it my understanding that you did not place that order for them? You were in Saudi Arabia when they actually placed the order?

A. I was in Saudi, or on the way over, or something like that. The order was placed directly, I imagine, to the office. This is hearsay on my part. I don't really know because I wasn't there. All I know is that the order was filled as stated.

(Transcript, pp. 28-29.)

- Q. In other words, you told your employees that if they were to make an order, and the order was to include a pound sample of aluminum and a pound of magnesium, that it should be packaged and then shipped in a certain way.
 - A. Yes.
- Q. But you were not aware until sometime later that they in fact later made an order?
- A. That is correct. I didn't know until I got back to England.

(Transcript, page 32.)

5. The underscored portions of the testimony of JEROME S. BROWER, quoted in Paragraph 4, were material to said investigation and, as he then and there knew well and believed, were false.

EIGHTH COUNT:

- 1. On or about August 23, 1979, within the District of Columbia, JEROME S. BROWER, while testifying before a Grand Jury of the United States, duly sworn in on April 3, 1978, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and having taken an oath that he would testify truly, did willfully, knowingly and contrary to such oath, make false material declarations as hereinafter set forth.
- 2. At the time and place aforesaid, the Grand Jury was conducting an investigation to determine whether EDWIN P. WILSON, FRANCIS E. TERPIL and others had acted as unregistered foreign agents of Libya and had agreed to ship explosives in violation of 18 U.S.C. $$951, 844(d), and other criminal statutes of the United States.
- 3. It was material to said investigation to ascertain for what purpose EDWIN P. WILSON and JEROME S. BROWER paid and employed various individuals to travel to and work in Libya in 1976 and 1977 and to ascertain who those individuals were so that the Grand Jury could question those individuals about what they did in Libya in 1976 and 1977.
- 4. At the time and place alleged, JEROME S. BROWER, appearing as a witness under oath before said Grand Jury, did willfully and knowingly testify, state and declare with respect to the aforesaid material matter as follows:
 - Q. You mentioned a little bit earlier that your best recollection now is that the first time that the term "mine clearing operation" was mentioned, was -- well, your best guess was -- in Geneva.
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Was it at that point when you received the money from Mr. Wilson or Mr. Terpil?
 - A. I think so. I think they told me that Mr. Harper had been discharged and they needed somebody for mine clearing.
 - O. Were they asking you whether or not you would be interested in providing those people?
 - A. Yes.

- o. And wlat, if any, agreement did you come to on that proposition?
- A. That we would furnish the technical expertise for it.
- Q. ... How many people did you ultimately take with you on this assignment for Mr. Wilson regarding mine clearing in Libya?
 - A. None.
- Q. Did you recommend to him, or suggest to him, or actually get in touch with any people to help him in that effort?
 - A. Yes. I --
 - Q. Who were they?
- A. I don't recall their names. I know one man is Smith.

(Transcript, pp. 34 and 36.)

- Q. You contracted with Mr. Wilson to do certain mine-clearing operations in Libya for your company; is that correct?
- A. I contracted with Mr. Wilson to supply him with some personnel to do mine clearing in Libya.
- Q. Of the people that you suggested to him [Ed Wilson], how many were employees of J.S. Brower and Associates?
 - A. One.

A JUROR: Mr. Brower, you said that you engaged four men, or secured four men, to do the mine clearing with Mr. Smith from your basic office?

THE WITNESS: No, no. Mr. Smith was the only one from my office.

THE JUROR: Well, who were the other three men?

THE WITNESS: No, I don't recall.

THE JUROR: You don't recall?

THE WITNESS: No.

Secret

THE JUROK: Okay, you say you don't recall the names. Well, where did you go to secure these men?

THE WITNESS: That's a good question, and I don't remember.

(Transcript, pp. 65-66.)

5. The underscored portions of the testimony of JEROME S. BROWER, quoted in Paragraph 4, were material to said investigation and, as he then and there knew well and believed, were false.

A "San Jose Mercury News" article originally written by Bernard D. Nossiter of the "New York Times", dated 5/24/81, concerned a specific case of Libyans residing in the U.S. who live in fear of executioners hired by Khadafy. The article identified one Farida Fagallai, a Libyan doctoral candidate at Colorado State University. Fagallai, who had an attempt made on his life by an unknown assailant, later identified as a retired marine veteran acting as a mercenary, Eugene A. Tafoya. Tafoya of Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, was charged with attempting to kill Zagallai. According to the article, the terrorist school in Libya is allegedly run for Khadafy by Terpil. The article went on to say that Terpil "is one
